

KINDERGARTEN - VKRP SCORE REPORT

To the Parents/Guardians of _____ SID: _____ GRD: _____

Your child recently took assessments as part of the Virginia Kindergarten Readiness Program (VKRP). VKRP is a state assessment program to understand how children's early literacy, mathematics, and behaviors support student achievement in kindergarten and beyond. VKRP results provide information about your child's first experience in school and how your child is learning over the course of the year. Children benefit from developing a range of early learning areas. When teachers understand current skills, they can provide appropriate support for a child's success in school and life. For more information about the assessed skills and how to support development outside school, visit the "VKRP For Families" webpage (<https://vkrponline.org/virginia-kindergarten-readiness-program-2/for-families/>).

This report tells you how your child performed on the Phonological Awareness Literacy Screening (PALS), Early Mathematics Assessment System (EMAS), and Child Behavior Rating Scale (CBRS). Your child's current performance is reported for each learning area, including specific skills. If your child received partial testing or a non-standard administration, you will see a result of NR (Not Reported). If your child was exempt from testing based on an individual education program (IEP) team or English learner committee decision, you will see a score of NA (Not Assessed).

The report shows how your child performed compared to the maximum and target for each skill. An overall benchmark status helps us understand what scores mean. When a child meets the benchmark in Fall, it indicates a good start to the year. When a child meets the benchmark in Spring, it indicates appropriate progress for the year. The Virginia Early Intervention Reading Initiative (EIRI) requires that schools provide intervention for children who score below the Fall PALS (Literacy) benchmark. If your child scored below the benchmark, school staff will:

- review available data to determine if your child needs additional assessments and/or interventions
- communicate any next steps for your child

To learn more about your child's strengths and needs in early literacy, mathematics, self-regulation, or social skills, please contact your child's teacher. VKRP assessments are generally administered in English. If your child qualifies for English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) services, contact your child's ESOL teacher for information on your child's English language development.
